

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, most of our colleagues are fully aware that Israel is being treated abysmally at the hands of the United Nations, principally in the General Assembly. Regrettably, the Palestinians have promoted and have adopted anti-Israel and anti-peace process resolutions.

Today, unfortunately, is no different. Despite UN Secretary General Kofi Annan's recent statement that, "words can inflame or soothe, and everyone needs a restoration of calm and quiet so as to create the best possible atmosphere for resumption of peace talks," the UN General Assembly is presently in an emergency session in which they will be considering, despite U.S. opposition, a resolution condemning Israel regarding the ongoing violence in the Middle East.

As our U.S. Ambassador to the UN, Richard Holbrooke, stated, "the General Assembly wants to beat up on Israel" once again. It sounds to me that it is similar to the UN's "Zionism is Racism" resolutions of old. Accordingly, I urge our colleagues to join in condemning this latest act of incitement at the UN.

CHINA BOLDLY TRYING TO PICK OUR PRESIDENT

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, news reports say a Chinese spokesman said, "America is our enemy, and we must prepare to fight them." Now, if that is not enough to infuriate Ronald Reagan, the spokesman further stated, "China does not want to see George Bush get elected." He said, "Bush will support and bolster Taiwan, and Bush will, in fact, build a missile shield around America, weakening China." I say that is a compliment to George Bush.

Because think about it, last election, China got away with funneling cash illegally to the Democratic National Committee. No investigation. This time they are boldly trying to pick our President. Beam me up, Congress. It is time to mandate an independent investigation into this Chinese business.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the lessons we should have learned at Pearl Harbor.

NATIONAL SECURITY THREATENED BY A LETTER

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, here we go again. The Clinton-Gore administration is illegally threatening vital national security interests of the American public.

This time the illegality involved a letter written by Russian Prime Minister Viktor Chernomyrdin to Vice President GORE about a secret, illegal nuclear arms deal with an unidentified terrorist nation "that was not to be conveyed to third parties, including the United States Congress."

Yes, sadly, Vice President GORE kept his promise to the Russian Prime Minister instead of his promise to the American public.

He did not tell Congress about the letter or about Moscow's continued sale of nuclear equipment to Iran, a blatant violation of the Nuclear Non-proliferation Act.

Instead of being open and honest with Congress about this high level national security threat, GORE simply filed the letter away and kept silent.

Mr. Speaker, America deserves an administration that will work with Congress to protect the national security interest of our Nation.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back Mr. GORE's flagrant disregard for our Constitution, our security, and our country.

COSPONSOR H. RES. 635, EXECUTIVE STEEL DEFENSE RESOLUTION

(Mr. VISCLOSKY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, I ask all of my colleagues to consider cosponsoring House Resolution 635, the Executive Steel Defense Resolution. We currently have 205 cosponsors calling upon the President of the United States to initiate a section 201 trade case to bring to an end illegally traded steel in the U.S. domestic market.

Despite investing $35 billion to modernize, despite the loss of 240,000 jobs, despite cutting back capacity by 20 percent, despite doubling productivity since 1983 because of collusion overseas, because of illegal dumping from countries overseas, particularly during the intervening time from 1998 until now, we have seen six bankruptcies of steel companies. We have seen an additional 6,000 steelworkers lose their jobs. We have seen capacity utilization decline from 90 percent to 75 percent.

We cannot afford to wait till the next Congress. We cannot afford to wait for the next administration. I call upon President Clinton to immediately file a section 201.

REMEMBERING COURAGEOUS SAILORS ABOARD U.S.S. "COLE"

(Mrs. FOWLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, today we remember those courageous sailors aboard the U.S.S. Cole whose dedication and conviction to freedom and democracy cost them their lives. We honor the sacrifice of those who were killed and pray for the speedy recovery of those who were injured and for the families of all those brave Americans.

To EMC Fred Stozier of Jacksonville, my thoughts are with him and his family as he recovers from his injuries.

We can never be completely immune from the darker forces of terrorism that lurk in every corner of the world. We must counter these threats with a complete commitment to preparedness and strength. Our adversaries must know we will not shy away from our responsibility to preserve our national security and the precious ideals of democracy. The sacrifice of these Americans on the altar of freedom will never be forgotten. May God bless their souls and may God bless America.

UNITED STATES IN THIRD YEAR OF IMPORT STEEL CRISIS

(Mr. MOLLOHAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MOLLOHAN. Mr. Speaker, what happens when a crisis is not resolved, a crisis that is allowed to grow, both in scope and intensity? In time, that crisis will become a disaster. Such a time is near at hand for our domestic steel industry.

We are in the third year of an import steel crisis. Our steel companies and workers are buckling under the weight of unprecedented, record-breaking foreign imports, much of it illegal. Thousands of our workers have been laid off. Six of our steel companies in the last 2 years have gone bankrupt. With this year's imports running higher than ever, the continued existence of a viable steel industry in this country is at risk.

The only way to avert such a disaster is to cut imports, to reverse the trend which is threatening an industry that is vital to our economy and our national defense.

That is why I join the gentleman from New York (Mr. QUINN) in introducing the bipartisan Executive Steel Defense Resolution. That is why I have joined the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. VISCLOSKY); the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. REGULA); the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. NEY); the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. WISE), from my home State; the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. KLICK); the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. MASCARA); and the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. DOYLE) in the bipartisan effort to achieve relief against disastrous steel import levels.

We call on the President to initiate a 201 proceeding, Mr. Speaker.

EFFORTS TO REDUCE PUBLIC DEBT AND PROTECT SOCIAL SECURITY AND MEDICARE HELD HOSTAGE BY ADMINISTRATION

(Mr. HERGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HERGER. Mr. Speaker, our efforts to reduce public debt and protect
